As he got the sign Lars stepped inside the body scanner at the Airport's security check.

Without his usual lament about being treated like some nobody.

He stood and lifted his arms, legs slightly apart.

James already had passed security check. He heard the sharp gasps of the security personnel and quickly turned, just in time to see Lars leaving the scanner, smiling triumphantly.

James' jaw dropped.

The zipper of Lars' tight jeans was short from bursting open.

James dragged Lars' away.

"Perverted idiot," he hissed. "Getting inside the scanner with a hard-on!"

Lars grinned.

"That's finest Danish steel!"
